Hi Andrew,

I am pleased to confirm that we have received your certified documents – thank you for sending these across. We have also taken a supporting statement from Dorothy. All that remains to be done now is for us to give you a quick call just to run through everything we have gathered for your case so that you can confirm whether you are happy for us to submit your case to Redress.

Would you be free at some point today for a call today for a final run through ?

Kind regards,
Sam Morris
