Hi Archie

Further to us receiving confirmation of your Redress Panel decision (attached), I am sending you the waiver advice letter from our solicitor, Matthew Reynard, which is also attached to this email. You should hopefully receive your postal copy of the determination pack this week if you've not received it as yet.

Please read through the advice letter prior to signing the waiver document and if you have any queries regarding the waiver document or the advice letter, then please contact Matthew who will be pleased to assist you. He can be emailed directly at MatthewR@aikerlegal.org

Should you decide to proceed with signing the waiver document, I would be very grateful if you could please notify me as soon as you have posted it back to the Redress Scotland address. For your reference, if you wish to print out and post the waiver before receiving the pack the address to post it back to is as follows:

Redress
PO Box 24209
EDINBURGH
EH7 9GT

There should be a prepaid envelope provided with the postal pack from Redress Scotland, but if you wanted to print out and return the signed waiver before the postal pack arrives, you would need to cover the postage.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any queries in the meantime.

Kind regards

Deanna Bradshaw
