

21/05/2026 via WhatsApp video – “I do not have a supporting statement because I have not really told anybody about it. I spoke to my mother and my dad, but they are both dead now. I have not really had the courage to speak to anybody else about the abuse and my life in care. I have always kept it myself because I really didn’t want to speak about it. It’s not something I want to dwell on but I still have nightmares about it to this day”.
