I was held on Remand in Longriggend Detention Centre on quite a few occasions between 1967-1970 as I recall. It was a horrible place, with an animal of an officer, everyone referred to him as Bootsy. He was a horrible man, who on countless occasions physically and mentally abused me.

I can recall being slapped, kicked, and punched by Bootsy on so many occasions. You couldn't report it back then, if you did, you would get ganged up on by all of the officers.

There was one specific time I recall being arrested as I was going to a football match. I was taken to Longriggend and Bootsy said who is the bastard, I said it was me, and he punched me right in the guts with such force.

Sometimes Bootsy would divert his attention from picking on me to picking on other children at Longriggend.

I can recall being publicly humiliated in front of everyone by the officers.

This has had a lasting impact on me, it has impacted my ability to trust others, especially people in authority or in uniform.
