I was first placed in a children's home when I was about four years old. It was really rough. It was more emotional than physical abuse but there was some physical abuse. I remember this room, I was stripped naked, my head was shaved and I got put in a cold bath. I was forced to eat food, I was always picky with food but they were rough. There was a lady who would belt me and drag me around the dining hall, always with name calling.

I was constantly degraded through name-calling and physical punishment. It was a lot of emotional trauma. I don't know if it was because of my name or my size, because I was a very small kid so I was always the target. It was by staff and other children there, and I would also see other children getting bullied.

I remember me and my brother running away, I can't put my head to what happened in detail but after we ran away there was a woman in a long fur coat and a big black car, like a chauffeur one. She picked us up and took us back to the home.

I was later placed in a second children's home. I remember being beaten there by both members of staff and other boys. I have often wondered whether I was targeted because of my background. My father was Italian and Irish, and my mother was Spanish and did not speak English. I do not know if this was the reason, but I remember being treated differently. I remember being taken into the toilets by staff, where they beat me with a football by kicking it at me repeatedly. They also slapped me, called me names, and humiliated me. The constant verbal abuse and bullying were degrading and have left me with lasting emotional trauma.

I was placed in both homes for around three to four months at a time. There were nine children in my family, and we were taken into care because there were too many of us at home and my father was frequently in and out of hospital. I went back and forth between my family home and the residential homes. I remember being placed there with my younger brother, my older brother, and I believe my sister as well.

I left Glasgow when I was nine and moved to England, and I was put in more homes there. I've started counselling here and I don't remember everything but I get flashbacks all the time.
