When I was first placed at Mr & Mrs Rooney care, I was slightly happy to be able to have a mother and father figure in my life that could guide me through my upbringing. They were first off polite and welcomed me in.

Until it got to around 2003, Mr Rooney tried to sexually assault me by trying to put his hands down my trousers. I told him to stop multiple times in which he did. I never reported this to anybody as I didn't feel I had the support network around me and I was scared to tell anybody what had happened, I felt ashamed and embarrassed that someone who was meant to be looking after me could abuse me in that way.

The local authority who placed me in to this foster care was Aberdeen City Council

I had just been split up from my family with my mum passing away. I was 10 or 11 years old. I didn't like being in foster care and away from my family as I felt left out and isolated from everybody else. I couldn't build relationships with anybody as I was out of my comfort zone. I was assaulted over the head with a book from my temporary foster carer for having a sweet wrapper on the floor. My room was otherwise spotless and I always kept clean, I felt like this wasn't deserved for something so minor. This was a recorded incident with the police.

There was of course other children around me and they would make fun of me, name call, beat me and take my things to humiliate me. I didn't enjoy being in temporary foster care as I just wanted to be back with my family.

The local authority who placed me in to this temporary foster care was Aberdeen City Council
