I was placed at this setting under a Child Protection Order because my parents were involved in ongoing domestic abuse. When I first arrived, the staff took all of my belongings away from me, leaving me with only the bare minimum. It immediately made me feel like I had lost everything and had no control over my life. The setting consisted of what I can only describe as a series of cells. We would be locked inside them for hours at a time.. It felt more like being imprisoned than being cared for.

I remember the male members of staff being very hands-on. If they wanted or needed you, they never asked. They would physically restrain you and move you wherever they wanted. There was no respect for us or our dignity. Every night, they would strip us completely naked before putting us to bed. Once we were in bed, the female members of staff would come into the room and sit there for what felt like hours, tormenting us. I already felt vulnerable and exposed because I had no clothes on, but they made the experience even worse by making dehumanising comments towards us. They seemed to enjoy humiliating us while we were at our most vulnerable. Comments such as "no woman would ever want you", "look at the state of you", and make comments about my body and the size of my penis. I've been left with permanent issues surrounding women. I cannot approach them, I've never been in a relationship. The comments they made ruined me.

There was a separate unit that was supposed to help boys approaching the age of 16 learn independent living skills. Instead, it was used as punishment. It was an empty cell where children would be left alone for days with nothing. When we were eventually let out, I remember being forced to fight the other boys for the staff's entertainment.

The staff had little regard for our welfare or basic needs. I was never taken to the dentist while I was there, and by the age of 18 I had all of my teeth removed. We were denied the basic care and dignity that every child should receive.

I started abusing substances here. I was only a child but they would let us get a high from deodorant cans and even let us smoke weed with them. This has left me with long term addiction issues.

When I turned 16, I was taken from the setting and left in a homeless shelter. I felt completely abandoned by Social Services, with no support, guidance, or aftercare. I was left to survive on my own with nothing. It was during this time that my addictions worsened, and I began having regular involvement with the police. Looking back, I believe this was a direct result of being left to cope alone without the support I needed.
