I was placed in Fornethy by the Local Authority or a Social Worker. I was only supposed to be there for a couple of weeks, but I ended up having to stay there for 2 months.

This was an absolutely horrible place. The teachers would hit us with their wooded soled shoes, it was like a clog but looked like a sandal. During my stay, they threw it at my head on several occasions. The teachers would throw dusters at me, smack me, constantly shout and humiliate me. I can remember there being a lot of verbal abuse.

Prior to going to Fornethy I never wet the bed, and after I left I didn't either. But during my time there, I began wetting the bed. One time, I wet the bed and tried to sneak down to the laundry room to wash my sheets, as I was scared what they would do if they found out. I got to the laundry room and a worker was already in there, she literally dragged me upstairs by my neck. I was made to stand in wet underwear and a wet nightgown in the corridor for such a long time, it felt like forever.

The teachers would constantly call me stupid, thick, and filthy. I was anorexic from a very young age. They used to force feed me if I didn't eat. This would make me be physically sick. I can recall the teachers grabbing my face and squeezing so my mouth would open, then they would force the food in.

I put on a medication called Phenergan during my time in Fornethy. The teachers would force me to take this, I don't know why I was even taking it.

I can recall one particular person, either Mrs. Robinson or Mrs. Baxter, they stand out as being particularly horrible to me.
