In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

When I was first taken into care, I had no idea what was happening. Everything happened so suddenly, and I was terrified. My sister was my comfort and my security, and all I wanted was to be with her.

When they separated us, I became completely hysterical. I was screaming, crying and panicking because I did not understand what they were doing or why they were taking us apart. I remember trying to run towards my sister, but staff held me back and would not let me go to her. I could hear the screaming and the panic around me, and those memories have never left me. I do not remember every detail of what happened because I was so distressed, but I remember feeling completely overwhelmed. All I knew was that I wanted my sister. She was my comfort zone, and being separated from her was devastating. I do not know how they eventually managed to calm me down because I was in such a state of panic.

I was deprived of the care, safety, and support that I should have received as a child. Instead, I lost my childhood. I became so distressed and overwhelmed that I would become hysterical and even lose control of my bowels. Rather than being comforted or supported, I was met with aggression. When I was upset, I was frequently slapped, and the staff were physically aggressive towards me.

The trauma I experienced has affected my memory, and I struggle to remember much of what happened. I do not even fully understand why I was placed there in the first place. I was also denied my education and the basic care and protection that every child is entitled to. The experiences I endured have left me deeply traumatised, and the impact continues to affect me to this day. Even now, all these years later, the memories are still with me. I am nearly 73 years old, and if I think about that day, I can immediately put myself back there. I can still hear the screaming and feel the fear exactly as I did then. The trauma has never gone away and has stayed with me throughout my life.
