When I was placed here I was a teenager. I was bullied and I didn't enjoy my time here. Any chance I got I ran away from here. After multiple times, I remember this one time I was brought back to the school and I was brought into the main hall of the school and the deputy head teacher was there. I remember him saying to me "the next time you run away, I'm going to get 2 officers to hold you down and I'm going to belt you across your bare backside"

This affected me mentally as I didn't enjoy or like my time in this school.

The bullies in this school were not nice, alongside verbal abuse I got physically abused too. I got beaten and kicked and this happened to me quite regular. I was scared to tell anybody in fear of being called a snitch and didn't want to be beaten up anymore/further.

The bullies also used to take my belongings and wet them whilst laughing at me and making fun of me.

I found an older teacher when i was on my work placement about me being bullied and he insisted I told him the names of these bullies and he said "I'll make sure they never do anything to you again" but unfortunately they still did.

Fortunately when I left Oak bank I never seen any of these bullies again. I'm still suffering to this day from the effects of my time in this school. I have manic depression, I have panic attacks and I always need somebody with me whenever I go the shops to have that security with me.
