When I was placed here I was 13 years old. I was absconded quite a lot for running away. I was a troubled teen not wanting to be in care or in the system itself. My dad was an alcoholic and a gambler and all's I wanted to do was be with my family.

I suffered physical abuse here by the staff. Instead of welcoming me back in and questioning me as to why I left, instead they took me back to my cell and beat me. Slapping, hitting and physically abusing me. I had no one to tell or turn to in this care setting and this made me feel very isolated and also. This was not a nice feeling being a young boy. Staff members here also threatened me to put me somewhere else which in a way I would of appreciated but in the same sense, this brought me a lot of uncertainty and unsettledness as I could never relax and settle in to Cardross.

I remember 2 members of staff restraining me and 1 of them hit me so hard I blacked out. I was seeing stars and this was the first time I'd been hit that hard. My dad would never of hit me as hard as this man did. The staff members would restrain me by locking my hands or arms so I couldn't move. Even though I would comply at times, this caused me a great deal of distress.

I was a bed wetter before being placed in care but going through these experiences didn't make this easier or solve my problem and made it worse for me.

I was always scared of a nighttime, I used to sleep with a pillow over my head to escape the screams of my mother in my head and I'd wake up in terror and fear and bed wet and also wake up with the pillow not near me as if someone had come into my room and moved the pillow from me.
