- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

When I was placed into St Mary's Young Offenders, I was only 15 years old, and I was completely unprepared for what I experienced there. The staff were horrible to me from the beginning. They would bully me, speak to me aggressively, and make me feel like I didn't matter. Instead of being supported or guided, I felt targeted and intimidated every single day. There were times when staff behaved in ways that were completely inappropriate and sexual towards some of the children, including me at times. Being so young, I didn't fully understand what was happening, but I knew it wasn't right. It left me feeling unsafe, confused, and constantly on edge.

The neglect was just as damaging. We weren't treated with any care or respect, and there was no sense of protection. Staff would restrain us for no real reason, using force when it wasn't needed. These restraints often turned into physical assaults, and I remember feeling terrified and powerless. Instead of helping us or trying to understand us, they used fear and violence to control us.

During my time there, one of the older boys, who was around 17, took advantage of me and sexually assaulted me. I was scared and didn't know how to process what had happened, but I did report it to staff. It was noted, but nothing ever really changed, and I didn't feel any safer afterwards. I was still just a child, trying to survive in an environment where adults abused their authority and other young people were also struggling and acting out of their own trauma.

Looking back, I realise how vulnerable I was and how much these experiences affected me. I didn't know right from wrong at that age, and I had no one to guide me or protect me. My time in St Mary's left a deep impact on me, shaping how I saw myself and how I learned to cope with the world around me.
