Hi Paul,

Thank you for letting us know. Would you be able to confirm if you have submitted an enquiry for the Scottish redress scheme at all? I will then remove your email from our system.

Take care,

Hi, this is the incorrect email for the person you are trying to contact. They must have given you the wrong details.

Just a quick follow-up regarding your enquiry about the Scottish Redress Scheme. We wanted to make sure you have a better understanding of what the Scheme is and how we can help.

The Scottish Redress Scheme was set up by the Scottish Government to recognise the harm experienced by people who were abused while in the care of organisations in Scotland as children. The Scheme provides financial redress to survivors, but it is also about acknowledging what happened and recognising the lasting impact it has had on their lives.

Our role is to support you through the application process, answer any questions you may have, and make everything as straightforward as possible. We understand that this can be a difficult topic to think about, so there is absolutely no pressure. You can take things at your own pace, and we're here whenever you feel ready. Don't worry if you're unsure whether this applies to you – that's something we can talk through together, and we're happy to help you understand if you may be eligible.

If you'd like to have an initial chat about the Scheme or find out more about how we can help, we'd be happy to arrange a call at a time that suits you.

If you'd like to read more about the Scottish Redress Scheme in your own time, you can visit the official website here:

We tried to reach you by telephone today but were unable to speak with you. Please contact us on +441618880834, on WhatsApp at 07442349572, or reply to this email if you would like to discuss how we may be able to assist.

Take care,
