In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Bellshill Childrens Home, Bellshill

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

During the time I was there, one member of staff, Agnes Watt, caused me a great deal of harm. Looking back, I can see that she groomed me. She was an adult in a position of authority, and I was a minor who didn't fully understand what was happening. She took me out to a gay bar in Glasgow city centre, got me drunk, and we smoked cannabis together. None of this was appropriate, and I was far too young to be in those situations. I remember her taking me back to her home and introducing me to her girlfriend. At the time, I didn't realise how wrong it all was, but I can now see how she was spending an unusual amount of time with me and becoming overly familiar.

I also remember her making inappropriate sexual remarks to me. She told me to do things to myself with the shower hose and made comments that no adult should ever make to a child. Her behaviour made me uncomfortable and confused, but I didn't have the understanding or the power to challenge it. I was a minor, and she was supposed to be someone I could trust.

Since then, I have tried to suppress many of the memories from my time in care. The experiences were overwhelming, and I didn't know how to cope with them. I began smoking a lot of cannabis because it helped me forget and numb some of the emotions connected to what happened. Even now, the impact of that period in my life is something I continue to deal with.
