Section 1: Personal details

This information will be used to join together Part 1 and Part 3 of your application forms.

Name

Robert Mcneill

Date of birth

Day Month Year

The next section asks you to write your statement of abuse.

Section 2: Your statement of abuse

Please refer to page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance when filling in this form.

Please make sure that whatever way you provide your statement, you include all the information Redress Scotland needs to make a decision. You can find out more on page 35 of “Help to apply”.

You may find that writing this brings up feelings or memories. If you need support you can speak to a case worker who can refer you to further help:

- Telephone: 0808 175 0808 (freephone)
- International: +44 131 297 6500
Lines are open Monday to Thursday, from 10am to 4pm (except Scottish public holidays)
- Email: apply@redress-scheme.scot

Providing your statement of abuse

In Part 1, you will have provided information about any relevant care settings you were abused in.

In Part 3, you need to provide a statement about your abuse. You can choose how you want to provide your statement. You can complete Q1, Q2, Q3 and Q4. Or you can:

- submit a previous statement (for example, a copy of a statement given to the police)
- write your statement in another format that is better suited to you

How to complete this section

You may have been abused in one relevant care setting, or in several different ones.

For this part of the application form, please provide a statement about each care setting you were abused in.

For example, if you were abused in 3 relevant care settings, please provide 3 statements.

You can do this in any order that makes sense to you.

There are pages for 4 care settings included in this form. If you need more copies, you can:

- contact a case worker
- make a copy yourself
- print additional pages from mygov.scot/redress

Please remember:

- there are no wrong answers - if Redress Scotland needs more or different information, your case worker will get in touch with you and let you know
- do not worry about your spelling
- use as much or as little space as you need to give your information - you can continue on additional pages if you want to

Your statement for Care setting 1

Please read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance before you begin.

In Part 1, you will have already provided information about the care settings you were abused in. By providing this information here, your case worker can join together the name of the care setting with your statement of abuse.

Q1 | What is the name or location of the relevant care setting you were abused in?

(For example, the name of the care home, or the city or region where you lived in foster care or while boarded out).

Longriggend Detention Centre, Airdrie

Do not worry if you are uncertain about dates or time. Please provide your best estimate.

Q2 | When were you abused?

For example: a single date, an age, or an approximate time or time range.

1994 - 1994

You do not have to provide names, if you cannot remember or do not feel comfortable doing so. If you do provide a name it will be passed to Police Scotland.

Q3 | Who was involved in your abuse?

For example: a member of staff, a peer or someone outside the care setting.

The information you provide will be used by Redress Scotland to make a decision about your application. Redress Scotland will use the “Assessment framework” to help them do this, available on gov.scot. Please be aware that it contains graphic descriptions of abuse.

Q4 | On the next page, please provide as much information as you can about:

- the abuse you experienced while living in this care setting
- what life was like for you during this time
- how the people responsible for your care and welfare failed to carry out that duty (within or beyond your care setting)

You can continue on additional pages if you need to.

Please read page 36 of “Help to apply” to find out more about what information you may want to include.

My time at Longriggend was absolutely awful, and it is something that has stayed with me throughout my life. When I first arrived, I was just sitting there minding my own business, trying to take in where I had been put. On my very first night, a prison officer came into my room and told me to face the wall. I didn't understand what was happening or why. As I stood there, he put his hand under my quilt and sexually assaulted me, putting his finger inside my anus. I was terrified, confused, and completely powerless. I was just a young boy, and I had no idea how to protect myself.

Not long after that, another officer came in and tried to sexually assault me as well. I had wet the bed because of the fear and panic I was living with, and instead of helping me or even showing any basic humanity, they beat me up for wetting the bed. That became the pattern—fear, humiliation, and violence. I was sexually assaulted multiple times by officers there. My mum had brought me some comics and little things to try to cheer me up, and when I went to get them, the officers grabbed me again, grabbing my genitals and touching me. It was disgusting and degrading. I looked like a young boy, because that's exactly what I was, and they took advantage of that vulnerability.

It was only when one of the older lads stepped in and threatened the officers that they finally started to leave me alone. Until then, I had no protection, no safety, and no sense that anyone cared what was happening to me. The fear I lived with every single day was overwhelming.

This has had a massive and lasting impact on my mental health. I have lived in constant fear of authority ever since. The trauma shaped the way I see the world and the way I react to people in positions of power. Eventually, even the judge apologised to me and said I should never have been put in there in the first place. Hearing that didn't undo the damage, but it showed that what happened to me was wrong and should never have happened.

What I went through at Longriggend has stayed with me for life. It changed me, and I am still dealing with the consequences of it today.

Do you want help
with this section?

If you want help before sending in the form, you can:

- read page 32 of the “Help to apply” guidance
- contact a case worker

The next section has questions about your supporting documents.

Section 3: Supporting documents

Please provide any supporting documents you have related to your abuse in care.

You can find out more about these types of documents on page 33 of the “Help to apply” guidance.

In some cases, it may be difficult to find supporting documents. To help with this part of the application, you can:

- include supporting documents when you send this part of the form, if you already have them
- send in your form without any supporting documents – your case worker will get in touch with you and have a conversation about what you can provide

Please tick which option you have chosen:

- I am including supporting documents with my form
- I am not including supporting documents
(if you tick this, a case worker will contact you)
- I am collecting my documents and will submit them a later date

Do you want help
with this section?

If you want help before sending in the form, you can:
