Good afternoon Fiona,

We hope all is well.

We will get in contact with your doctor's surgery to retrieve your information. We have provided them with your signed letter of authority granting us to work on your behalf. They should not be contacting you to confirm this, or for you to complete our request on their behalf.

We will provide you with a further update once we have retrieved all of your personal data in relation to your time within care.

We hope you have a nice evening and enjoy your weekend.

Kind regards,

James

Dear Miss Fiona Watson

Your Reference: 100394

We are writing in relation to your application to The Scottish Redress Scheme. The firm has recently changed it's telephone operating service, and have therefore updated our number.

Please note our new contact number is 0161 570 0550, all other emails addresses remain unchanged.

We would be grateful if you can update your records and if you need to contact the office, please use the aforementioned number moving forward.

Kind regards,
Jamie Kelly
