Dear ~~Parent~~, Sir or Madam,

As you may know your ^{Andrew Jones} son is due to be transferred to the Company Section of the Boys' Brigade now that he has completed his service in the Junior Section.

On Wednesday of this coming week there will be a short ceremony in the Church hall at Haldane Street when the boys being transferred will receive their certificate of service, prize and new uniform, and be formally accepted into the Company Section by Mr Fulton.

I would like to extend an invitation to you to be present at the transfer to see your son being promoted and to meet the Staff and the Company Captain. A cup of tea and biscuits will also be provided afterwards. If you wish to attend please come to the hall for 7.25 pm. Your son should come to the hall at 7.00 pm. (and not at 6.30 pm which is his usual time.) The ceremony does not last long and everything should be finished by 8.15 at the latest.

In case I do not have the opportunity to speak to you on Wednesday I would like to convey to you my thanks for your continuing support throughout your son's service in the Junior Section. This support is no less important now that he is to move on and I am sure Mr Fulton would appreciate your backing particularly during the next few months when new recruits are still settling down.

After this coming Wednesday, of course, your son no longer attends on a Wednesday evening, instead he meets at 7.20 pm on a Friday evening at the same place. The Company Section meetings also finish later at about 9.30 pm.

regards

Gordon Fleming

Lieutenant in Charge - Junior Section.

P.S. I am aware that Andrew is temporarily in your charge. As you can see, boys parents are being invited to attend on Wednesday. If you wished to send someone along on Andrew's behalf he or she would be very welcome.

I was a little concerned that Andrew did not attend his first night at the Company Section of the Boys Brigade on Friday past. I would appreciate it if you could remind him of Wednesday's transfer when he has to meet at the hall at 7.00 pm.
