

Dearling Lisa, Tommy

This letter is very hard for me to write as there is so much I want to say and don't know how to say it. Even though I have not been to see you it does not mean I don't love you and miss you so much. I think about you all the time and often wonder what you are doing or where you are. You might think I am being wicked in not seeing you, but darling it would make everything so much harder when I have to leave. I hope when you are older you will understand why I had to go away and leave you the way I did. When I leave this time though, I will be keeping in touch by letter and by phone and I will be able to send you your birthday and Christmas cards as well.

Well Lisa I don't know what else to say except I love you and miss you so much darlings

May be sometime you will get over the hurt and we can get together again.

Your Ever Loving

Mum
