

BALNACRAIG SCHOOL
HEADMASTER'S REPORT

177

NOVEMBER 1981

The school remains full with a complement of 24 girls on the roll but only 20 girls in residence. The four absentees are accounted for as follows:

home on extended leave. Mrs. Gordon fell asleep with a burning cigarette resulting in the house being totally gutted by fire. Frances is now helping her mother with salvaging and temporary accommodation problems. Frances is due to return later this week and the other three girls will return following medical clearances.
