ROYAL SCOTTISH SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO CHILDREN

17 William Street,
DUNDEE. 1st November, 1974

David Ballantyne Andrews (13/7/67), Helen Devine Andrews (21/8/68),
Sharon Andrews (10/7/69).

The parents of the above named children are John Andrews, aged 28 Years, Jute Worker, residing at c/o Meek, 20 Cheviot Crescent, Dundee.

The mother who lived apart is Janette Simpson Markie or Andrews, aged 26 years, recently at 80F Pitkerro Drive, Dundee.

Religious Persuasion.... Protestant. Parents married on 26/11/66 at Dundee Registry.

The family became known to the Society in January 1969 when a complaint was received to the effect that the family were living in very unsatisfactory conditions at 57a Hilltown, Dundee. They were then advised and warned of their responsibilities.

In September, 1970 a similar complaint was received. The family then lived at 17 Glamis Street, Dundee. They were again seen and advised.

In December 1971 the mother deserted the children and they were fretting. The father and children were at that time with a relative at [REDACTED]. This address was visited and found to be a very dirty home. The father was warned to improve conditions.

On 20th May 1972 The mother called at the Society Office. She had returned to Dundee on the previous night and took possession of the children Helen and Sharon and wanted David but the father would not at that time hand over the child to her. She had no excuse for her conduct and desertion. The father and David were seen at c/o Meek, 20 Finestraig Street, Dundee (Paternal Grandmother).

On 1st July, 1972 The mother again deserted the children and the Maternal Grandmother, Mrs Markie applied to the Social Work Department for financial help. Mr Graham, Senior Social Worker Area 2 arranged temporary help. By 10th July 1972 the mother had all the children. On 11th July 1972 the father returned to Dundee from Edinburgh and decided to leave the children with the mother.

By November 1972 the mother was living with a Brian Rice at 86 Liff Road, Dundee. The children passed between the mother and the Maternal Grandmother. On 22nd January 1973 The mother left David and Helen with the father at c/o Meek, 20 Cheviot Crescent, Dundee. She kept Sharon. By 19th June 1973 the mother and children were with the grandmother at 12 Isla Street, Dundee. Conditions were overcrowded.

On 13th July, 1974 The grandmother, Mrs Markie, 12 Isla Street, complained that the children had been left at her home and she could not cope as she received no financial aid. Enquiry was made and the mother was found to be living with Brian Rice at 91 Dalniala Avenue, Dundee. She had the children with her at that address by 17th July 1974. She made it known she was removing to another house at 80F Pitkerro Road and would retain that children and give no further cause for complaint; she felt that the grandmother's complaint was unjustified as she had provided for her children.

On 5th September, 1974 an anonymous complaint was received to the effect that the children were at 12 Isla Street, living in dirty conditions and that Mrs Markie had a prostitute living in the home.

On 6th September 1974 Inspectors Durie and Chalmers visited at 12 Isla Street and there saw the Grandmother (tenant) and the mother and children, the children were clad, active but dirty. The mother denied that the children lived at this address, she and the children resided at 80F Pitkerro Road, Dundee.

On 17th October 1974 The Maternal Grandmother, Mrs Markie called at the Society Office and complained that the mother had on 5th October 1974 called at her home with the children and asked her to child mind while she, the mother went to a dance. The Grandmother agreed. The mother failed to return and just abandoned the children. The grandmother could not contact the father to take the children forthwith.

On 18th October 1974 Inspector Chalmers was accompanied by Senior Inspector Durie when he visited 12 Isla Street and then saw Mrs Markie and the children David and Helen. They were sufficiently clad. The home of Mrs Markie is of two apartments, dirty and badly kept. There was one double bed and covers were filthy and inadequate. The room was littered with general rubbish. The grandmother reiterated her story of the mother's desertion. She the grandmother made her own enquiries at 80f Pitkerro Drive and learned that the mother had said she was going to London and had disappeared. The grandmother went on to say that she could not keep the children so on 14th October, 1974 she had seen the father who lived with his mother, Mrs Meek at 20 Cheviot Crescent and had asked him to take the children. He promised to try to make arrangements and see her on 16th October - This he failed to do and now she wanted other arrangements made for the children. She was advised that the father would be seen but as a first step she should consult the Duty Officer at Area 3 Social Work Department.

Abortive efforts were made to see the father at 20 Cheviot Crescent and a note was left advising him to call at the Society's Office.

On 23rd October 1974 at 10-15 am. The father was interviewed at this office and he then explained that he was working with British Rail at Taybridge Station; that he lodged with his own mother, Mrs Meek at 20 Cheviot Crescent and that two adult brothers also lived there also that his parents, old age pensioners could not help him. He was warned that conditions at 12 Isla Street were unsatisfactory and that the grandmother wanted the children removed and that if unable to manage he should make application at Area 3 Social Work Department. He arranged to do so at once. Senior Inspector Durie contacted Mr Howden, Senior Social Worker and asked him to have the father interviewed on arrival.

Further enquiry was made and it was now known that the mother was in the Manchester area, exact address not known.

On 30th October 1974 Inspector Chalmers accompanied by Senior Inspector Durie paid a visit to 12 Isla Street. Saw the tenant, Mrs Markie. Sharon was in bed unwell (heavy cold), others at school. The home was in a dirty condition. Mrs Markie averred that she had eventually called at Area 3 Social Work Department where she was interviewed and had received a visit from a Social Worker from that Department.

On 30th October 1974 I called at Area 2 Social Work Department and discussed the case with a Senior Social Worker and learned that appropriate action would be taken.

On 31st October 1974 The Social Work Department, Area 2 took the children into care and placed them in St Francis Home, Roseangle, Dundee.

Due to the habits and mode of life of the mother and the father's inability to make arrangements for them, the children have led a most unsettled existence and recently have lived once again in very dirty overcrowded conditions due to the mother's desertion on 5th October, 1974.

with the crime or offence of Section 32(2)(c) Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968

Previous Appearances as known to the Officer making the Report:

FAMILY:

Father - John Andrews (28) Last known address 20 Cheviot Crescent, Dundee.

Mother - Janette Simpson Markie or Andrews (26) Believed to be factory worker, last known address - 5 Brideoak Street, Cheetham Hill, Manchester.

Others - David Andrews (7) Dens Road Primary, Subject of report
- Helen Andrews (6) " "
- Sharon Andrews (5) " "

Although I have made repeated efforts to make contact with the parents of the family, I have been unable to do so. It would seem that Mr. and Mrs. Andrews have been separated since at least 1971. Mr. Andrews was living with his parents until approximately two to three weeks ago, when he suddenly left; they have not seen or heard from him since and they have no idea of his whereabouts. It is believed that Mrs. Andrews is now living in Manchester, with a Mr. Brian Rice, with whom she has been periodically cohabiting since about November 1972.

HOME CONDITIONS:

When the children were received into care (31.10.74), they were living with Mrs. Markie, their maternal grandmother. Mrs. Markie has a two roomed ground floor flat in a rather depressed area near the city centre. When the three children were living with her, it was rather overcrowded. It was also dirty, with dirty bedclothes, and rubbish strewn across the floor. In one room there was an open coal fire blazing with no fire guard.

SOCIAL BACKGROUND:

David, Helen and Sharon have lived at various times with their mother, their father, and their maternal grandmother. According to Mrs. Markie, on several occasions in the past, Mrs. Andrews has left the children with her for an evening and then failed to return for several days.

On/

/On either October 5 or 6, according to Mrs. Markie, Mrs. Andrews left the children with her while she went dancing. Mrs. Andrews failed to return and it is understood that she is now living in Manchester. On 30 October 1974 another social worker and myself, at the request of the R.S.S.P.C.C., visited Mrs. Markie's home and the following morning the children were received into care, under Section 15 Social Work (Scotland) Act.

SUBJECT:

David is a very lively boy. When he was living with his grandmother, Mrs. Markie, she admitted that she often had trouble in controlling him. On several occasions, Sister Antonia (St. Francis Children's Home) has remarked that he is a "real boy". I have found him to be lively, intelligent and inquisitive. He is also intensely loyal towards his two sisters.

ASSESSMENT:

The Andrews children have led a very unsettled existence over the last few years in what I believe to be dirty physical conditions. This family has also been known to the R.S.S.P.C.C. since 1969. However, since they were received into care, all three seem to have settled very well at St. Francis Children's Home

RECOMMENDATION:

In view of the instability these children have known within the family living situation and the stability they have found at St. Francis Children's Home, we recommend that they be made the subjects of a residential supervision order.

 Children - David Andrews (7) Hawkhill Primary, subject of report

Since the previous report both Mr. and Mrs. Andrews have contacted this department. Mr. Andrews visited me in the office on 17.12.74 wanting to know if he could have the children home for Christmas. During the course of the conversation it transpired that he intends getting a larger house so he can have the children to stay with him and his co-habitee. He said he did not want Mrs. Andrews to get the children back. Since Mr. Andrews has only visited the children once since they were received into care, and he was reportedly drunk at that time, I suggested to him that rather than unsettle the children, he visit them over the Christmas period in St. Francis Children's Home. He readily agreed to this, but in fact he has not visited the children at all apart from the one time mentioned above.

Mrs. Andrews visited me at the office on 23.12.74, together with her co-habitee, Mr. Rice. They were enquiring about help to get a house, and they also wanted advice regarding Social Security. Mr. Rice and Mrs. Andrews were at that time living with Mr. Rice's parents, but this arrangement was proving to be unsatisfactory. According to Mrs. Andrews, she and Mr. Rice were going to view a flat that evening, although I asked them to keep me informed of where they are living, I have heard no more from them.

Mr. Andrews and Mr. Rice have visited the children several times since they returned to Dundee. She told me that her aim is to make a home for herself and Mr. Rice, and take the children to live with them.

Although I have visited the children twice since Mrs. Andrews' return, on neither occasion did any of them mention her to me, although they make repeated references to 'Nana' (Mrs. Markie). On the second occasion I mention to Helen and Sharon that I had heard that their mother had visited them, and they both simply replied "yes".

ASSESSMENT AND:
RECOMMENDATION

In view of the fact that these three children have had a very unsettled existence to date, and that at the present time neither parent is able to provide a home for the three children, it is recommended that David, Helen and Sharon Andrews be made subjects of a residential supervision order.

Summary of present situation: Mr. and Mrs. Andrews have been separated since 1971. David, Helen and Sharon have lived at various times with their mother, their father, and their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Markie. They were received into care 31.10.74, following desertion by Mrs. Andrews. At this time as on several previous occasions, she left the children with her mother, Mrs. Markie. Mrs. Markie was unable to cope with the children, who are fairly wild, although they seem to have settled down fairly well at St. Francis. On 8.1.75

Summary of present situation (continued) the children were made the subjects of a residential supervision order. Since the children were received into care, Mr. Andrews has, I believe, visited them once, before Christmas. He was reportedly drunk on that occasion. Mrs. Andrews returned from Manchester, where she was staying with her cohabitee, in the middle of December. She expresses great interest in the children, but nevertheless, her visits are not as frequent as they could be. (She has visited once since Christmas). She has, however, recently started work, and tells me that she is trying to get a house, so she can make a home for herself and her children. However, I feel that it will be sometime before she will be in a position to provide for the children.

Additional information (including comments on matters arising from case discussion)

The R.S.S.P.C.C. have also been involved in this case since January 1969.

Plans or recommendations for future care, career, etc. I feel that the three Andrews children will remain in the care of this department for some time to come. They seem to be fairly well settled now at St. Francis; it is within easy distance for both Mrs. Markie and Mrs. Andrews to visit them and I give them both every encouragement to do so. Mr. Andrews is virtually out of the picture now, and shows no interest whatsoever in the children.

Progress in school/employment (details of wages where applicable)

Summary of present situation: Mrs. Andrews and Mr. Rice appear now to be cohabiting on a steadier basis. They have a house in Beechwood, which they have managed to furnish quite adequately, with the help of the Social Work Department and Social Security. Mrs. Andrews keeps the house clean and tidy and is preparing to have the children returned to her.

She expresses interest in the children, and her co-habitee, Mr. Rice also appears willing to accept the children. However, Mrs. Andrews does not visit the children as often as she could - she always has a reason why she has not visited for, say, the last two weeks, but it is hard to tell how genuine the reason is e.g. 'flu, having a cooker fitted etc. However, I believe that the children have said that they see her often when 'granny' collects them from St. Francis, and takes them out - so in fact the children may well see their mother more often than we realise.

Nevertheless, the steadiest influence in their lives still appears to be Mrs. Markie, their maternal grandmother. She is very fond indeed of them, and they of her and she visits them very regularly and takes them out.

Additional information (including comments on matters arising from case discussion)

Plans or recommendations for future care, career, etc.

Mrs. Andrews and Mr. Rice have appeared to settle down in a steady relationship, and have built up a nice home between them. Mrs. Andrews is keen to have her children returned to her, but because of their very unsettled past, I believe that we should give Mr. Rice and Mrs. Andrews a little more time to settle; meanwhile encouraging Mrs. Andrews to visit as often as possible. However, I feel that should things continue satisfactorily, David, Helen and Sharon can be returned home in the fairly near future.
