Good morning,

Our ref: 100319

Thank you for your previous email. We note its contents.

Could you kindly provide us with an update as to your current position in relation to our subject access request.

We note that our request was submitted on the 24th of April 2026, with a deadline of 24th of May 2026. We understand the high volume of access request you may be facing, for future reference. Could you kindly request an extension to enable you to fulfill the request. We can allow you up to the 24th of July to complete this request in relation to our client.

Should we not hear from you within 14 days from the date of this communication, we will have no option but to escalate the matter to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James

Protective Marking

We are using protective marking software to mark all our electronic and paper information based on its content, and the level of security it needs when being shared, handled and stored. You should be aware of what these marks mean for you when information is shared with you:

- 1.OFFICIAL SENSITIVE (plus one of four sub categories: Personal Data, Commercial, Operational, Senior Management) - this is information regarding the business of the council or of an individual which is considered to be sensitive. In some instances an email of this category may be marked as PRIVATE
- 2.OFFICIAL - this is information relating to the business of the council and is considered not to be particularly sensitive
- 3.NOT OFFICIAL – this is not information about the business of the council.
