PLANNING FOR CHILDREN IN CARE (REVIEWS)

6-3

Childs name Colin Anderson

Date of Birth 3.1.69

Area Office Rosyth

Date of Review 14.2.84

Place Dunfermline

Time 2.15 pm

Report by Social Worker/Residential Worker (following areas should be covered in all cases - Personal Appearance - Health/Illness and action taken - Education/Work - Leisure Interests - Relationship with Family, Foster Family/Care Staff, Peers, Teachers, Employers etc - any significant change in child's/families situation - work done and its effectiveness since last review - proposals for future plans)

Colin has been on my caseload for some years. I undertook his case when social workers changed like butterflies. He and I got to know each other over the years and I have had regular contact with him. He is sensitive to change and needs some understanding in the sense that he can be troubled and troublesome on occasions. He has done particularly well in the last few years, both at Touch Children's Home and at the Curpheys - though I suspect the latter's new baby will upset him, and he will seek another change, possibly returning to Touch Children's Home. If at all possible this should be resisted, and he should be encouraged to continue and finish his contract. This young man is growing well and should have a reasonably independent life in the not too distant future. However, one can only guess at the amount of hidden anger and depression arising from his very early troublesome childhood. His enuresis should be watched as a signal or sign of how he is feeling internally.

The above named couple are foster parents. At the moment they have a foster child, Colin Anderson, staying with them. Before he went there he had two weekends with them, including fares, and they also collected him on the occasion of him going there permanently, again paying all the fares.

The weekends, for which we used to give them allowance, were £4.25 each. And the fares on the single day were £2.30. I should be grateful therefore if you could let them have the total amount of £10.80.

Could you also advise me as to the current procedure for obtaining clothing needed for foster children in our care.

Colin has now left school and continues his successful placement with Mr. and Mrs. Curphey. In order to further his Youth Training Scheme he has to attend the Agricultural College in Cupar one day a week and the only way he could manage this was to go by motorbike. He has received proper instruction and supervision in learning how to use his bike and I think in the circumstances it would be appropriate to help him towards the cost of the purchase of this bike. I would be grateful, therefore, if £170 could be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Curphey to help towards the cost of it. He himself has paid for his own insurance and equipment and I think he is to be commended for making the effort. His successful placement with the Curpheys has meant that (1) he is out of residential care and (2) he is receiving the necessary support at the right time within the community.

I would be grateful if you can accede to this request and would welcome indication when the money has been sent to Mr. and Mrs. Curphey.

Dear Mrs Curphey

COLIN ANDERSON

With regard to the above child I would advise that as Colin is now in receipt of YTS Payment your fortnightly payments will be reduced.

Colin's contribution to you will be £8.40 per week your payment from us will be £17.56 per week plus £8.40 supplementary allowance these amounts totaled together will be 2/3s of the maintenance component.

As your payments are paid every two weeks in advance there is an overpayment of £64.14, what we propose to do is deduct £21.38 from your payment of £51.92 for the next three payments this will start from the period 20.9.85 - 3.10.85 when your cheque will be for £30.54, you will receive another two payments for this amount and then you will receive future payments of £51.29.

Colin has been staying with Mrs Stewart Cupar, since 23 Nov 86. The cost for this is £55 per week. Could you do the necessary and arrange for payment to Mrs Stewart from that date? 23/11 - 19/12

His bursary is being re-assessed in view of the fact that he is no longer living in the hostel.

*27dyds.
212.14*

Also, he will be leaving our care in January 1987 when he is eighteen.

I also notice that his YTS scheme stopped on 26 Jul of this year and there may need to be a re-adjustment about the financial arrangements with Mr and Mrs Curphy.
Could you please explore this for me?

He hopes to move into a cottage (private rental) in the beginning of January and I think we may well need to find the initial deposit and first month's rental for him, which would be £300.00. I will explore this more fully this week and let you know the outcome.

I got the impression I am still in a confused state about his financial arrangements and perhaps will need to come and have a further chat with you about them.

Do I need to do a CIC slip since he left the hostel and went to stay at the supported landlady's?

I would welcome your advice.

Many thanks for your help.

(a) PRIMARY reason for present application: Fostering placement breaking down.

5 DETAILS OF PREVIOUS PLACEMENTS AWAY FROM HOME

Colin has been with his present foster parents for nearly 5 years, before that he was in a Children's Home and had been abandoned twice by his own parents.

6 FACTORS PRECIPITATING PRESENT APPLICATION

(EXCLUDING those which may be shown at Section 4(a) above)

Breakdown of fostering placement due to unresolvable tension between Colin and his foster mother. This has not given way to discussion or counselling and everyone has agreed that Colin should leave this placement.

7 AIMS OF REQUESTED PLACEMENT

(a) Aims and expectations of placement: I am requesting a placement at Touch Children's Home to allow Colin a period of separation from family life, especially with people whom he knew many years ago, eg Miss Lessels and some of the staff at Touch Children's Home. This period (not more than 6 months, hopefully), would also allow me to undertake further counselling with Colin and to discuss with him his attitudes to the next steps. Work will be undertaken with him intensively to try and see whether some motives and attitudes towards women can be readjusted and his present distress alleviated.

(b) Social Worker's immediate AND long term plans for child, including any request for assessment: I do not think further assessment is needed since he is functioning well in school and is clearly making progress socially. His attitudes are consistent with earlier experiences that he has been involved in. The medium and long term plans will be to try and seek a different place for Colin either in a family or in a small group home which might see him through to adolescence and adulthood.

12 SIGNIFICANT MEDICAL HISTORY

Enuretic and at times Encopretic.

Occasional outbursts of violence, but not significantly to indicate any brain damage.

13 CHILD'S ATTITUDE TO COMING INTO CARE:

Colin is understandably distressed as we all are about his coming back into residential care.

14 INTERRELATION BETWEEN CHILD AND PARENTS/SIBLINGS:

Colin relates well to his foster father but has not been able to significantly alter his attitude to women. He has a particularly good relationship with his younger "sibling" - a boy who was conceived on the day that Colin was placed with his foster parents.

15 INTERRELATION BETWEEN CHILD AND PEERS, ADULTS OTHER THAN PARENTS, AUTHORITY, OTHER SEX:

Good relationships in general, better with men than with women.

16 PARENTS/SIBLINGS ATTITUDE TO CHILD COMING INTO CARE:

No contact with family or parents.

Colin Anderson

DOB 3-1-69

DOA 29-7-80

Colin has developed into a good looking healthy robust adolescent with a keen sense of humour, although a shy boy communicates well at all levels.

Colin's never been a tidy lad but his personal hygiene is good, he is a good eater, very selective, he sleeps soundly and his bed wetting is almost non existence.

Colin is active in most sports and has shown a determination to succeed with the ability to compete as a team member.

School presents few problems, he does in some subjects and would like to do better.

The demand for personal attention is less obvious but the need is still there.

On rare occasions Colin will play with friends outwith the home but favours the group activities within.

Colin's sexual development appears to be developing along normal adolescent lines. He does masturbate and is active in touch play with girls.

There has been a tremendous change in Colin. He has evolved from a confused angry, anxious young boy to a very mature young adolescent. He has great strength of character always ready to help others with their problems and is a much respected member of his peer group. Colin is aware of his position in the group and can be a calming influence when things are a little hectic.

Colin does disrupt the unit from time to time but usually can be placated. He is aware of his unique position tends to exercise it when bored but this doesn't often occur.

The question of fostering does crop up from time to time but the dramatic change in Colin's social and mental attitude seems to indicate his putting down roots here and looking on Touch as his long term prospect.

The need for social contact outwith Touch e.g. with a volunteer is very important to Colin and the breakdown with his last volunteer seems to have hurt the boy deeply and the need to establish a lasting relationship outwith Touch is vital to Colin's future development.

W. R. Clayton

As stated before in my short report in April 1982, Colin continues to make some progress. Application has been made to the Community Carers, and I am hopeful that some time in the new year - probably February, that he might be considered for a place.

a volunteer, began some work with Colin, but this did not seem to develop, mainly because of Colin's inconsistent demands upon and then Colin's withdrawal from the relationship since it could not satisfy him immediately and in such a way that he desired.

I leave it very much for Colin to contact me and develop any themes which he feels he wishes to, and is ready for.

There has been no further contact from the family, and I am uncertain as to whether Colin sees his grandparents or not.

He very much enjoyed his summer holiday, and I continue to see the growth in confidence and maturity. This has inevitably lead him to some sexual explorations, but I do not think they create any major difficulties within the Children's Home.

PLANS

1. To pursue the Community Carers Scheme.
2. To allow him to remain at Touch with a view to continuing to build on his confidence and his skills which he is developing both within the school and the Children's Home.

CHILDREN'S HOME REVIEWS - COLIN ANDERSON, TOUCH CHILDREN'S HOME

At our recent review at the Children's Home, the following recommendations were made:-

1. It was recognised that Colin had made substantial progress.
2. His renewed interest in fostering has increased some anxieties and it is important to find the right kind of family, which might be a single male, in looking for alternative family homes.
3. Residential staff to face him up to some of his responsibilities in connection with hiding and/or destroying other people's toys; bed-wetting; and his continued aggression towards females.

CHILDREN'S HOME REVIEWS - COLIN ANDERSON, TOUCH CHILDREN'S HOME

At our recent review at the Children's Home, the following recommendations were made:-

1. For Colin to continue at the Children's Home, and for the staff both field and residential, to encourage discussion from Colin about his future.
2. Not to impose any alternative placement on Colin, but to think about presenting a Form E to the District Case Committee in six months time.
3. That Colin should be prepared as well as possible for transfer from the Primary School, where he is doing exceptionally well, to the secondary school at Woodmill.
4. To review again in six months time.

COLIN ANDERSON DOB 3.1.69

Review at Touch Children's Home, 29 April 1981. Date of admission to Home 29.7.80

Formerly living with Mr and Mrs Waines,

Dunfermline

LEGAL POSITION - Section 16 Parental Rights granted October 1971.

In my previous notes on Colin, I indicated that his parents' whereabouts were unknown, although a grandfather lives in Abbeyview, and through this contact Colin has now got some knowledge of his mother's address in Aberdeen.

there was some brief
contact between him and her, either by telephone or cards.

Bernadette Gilesman undertook the work with his scrapbook, and he has been continuing his work of settling down and I suspect taking stock of his situation.

There have been one or two contacts with his former foster parents and the last contact with Mr Waines and Colin still left some uncertainties and doubts.

Colin and I have not seen a great deal of each other except in passing, and I feel he sees me as the "receptacle" of either bad news or painful memories, best left unlooked at and ignored, or on occasions made into the bad person. This places me in a little bit of a dilemma since the following themes I think are around:-

1. It is difficult to assess whether or not he wishes to make a further commitment to fostering or alternative family life.
2. It is a relatively short time since the breakdown of the fostering relationship, and I have not yet formed any substantial opinion as to whether pro-actively seek further family life for him, or whether to leave him to indicate that he is ready having adjusted to his new circumstances.

On balance, I am inclined to leave things as they are, with Colin getting some things from the Children's Home, some things from Kilcreggan Group, and he will also be able to start Seal some time after August.

It will be helpful if Residential Staff can indicate whether or not he is suitable for fostering, and whether there are any other things which might be suggested as helpful in dealing with some of his issues.

CHILDREN'S HOME REVIEW - COLIN ANDERSON, TOUCH CHILDREN'S HOME, DUNFERMLINE

At a recent review at the Children's Home, the following recommendations were made:-

1. To allow Colin to settle down and assess his behaviour during the next three months.
2. For further discussion to take place with the foster parents to enable clearer lines and boundaries to be established concerning their contact with Colin and Colin's with them.
3. To enable him to continue doing some work about his present feelings and to recognise that allowing him to regress on suitable occasions might well be the best way to help him at this stage.
4. To review in 3 months time.

CHILDREN'S HOME REVIEW - COLIN ANDERSON, TOUCH CHILDREN'S HOME, DUNFERMLINE

At a recent review at the Children's Home, the following recommendations were made:-

1. To continue the work as set out in the September review which includes allowing him to test out adults concerning his multiple rejections, and to allow him to form attachments within the Children's home setting.
2. Discussion has taken place with the foster parents and it is recommended that no further developments with them should take place within the next 5 months.
3. For John Hughes and Ruth Lessels to arrange a tea party for Colin's natural family, so that preliminary soundings can be taken about their future interest or views.
4. It was recognised that Bernadette Gilseman had done a lot of excellent work in setting up a scrap book.
5. To review in 6 months time.

Yours sincerely

Health & Physical Development

Colin continues to enjoy good health and his physical development is satisfactory. He is of average height for his age and is stockily built. Colin's physical sexual development is satisfactory.

Colin continues to be a bit 'picky' about food but this does not cause any problems and he always shows a healthy appetite.

Colin enjoys a regular and settled sleep with no exhibition of anxiety or stress through nightmares. He continues to bed-wet but the issue of deliberate wetting for sensual reasons has been discussed with him and he is now expected to take responsibility for the removal of bed-wetting.

Colin copes well with group situations. He enjoys one to one with adults when he has the chance. In the past this has caused problems in that Colin became very possessive of his chosen favourite member of staff. However I feel he is becoming more able to share relationships.

In play he, at the moment, enjoys doing things with who is two years his junior.

Colin enjoys football and was in the school rugby team until he was banned for delinquent behaviour during a visit to another school. Colin has no strong interest in any hobby.

Family

Apart from a visit to grandparents over Christmas/New year Colin has had no contact with family. I believe Colin had an invitation to visit his grandparents regularly if he wishes but he has not taken this on.

School

Colin appears to be enjoying school and seems stimulated by the range of new subjects like languages and science.

Colin is I feel developing a fairly satisfactory sense of his place in society and the expectations placed on him. He shows a willingness to consider the rights and wrongs of situations and is often kind and thoughtful. He is still 'dour' at times and also continues to find it difficult to acknowledge good feelings.

Colin is aware of plans for possible return to family life and in the little he says about this gives indications of a desire to have another go. However until things actually move on this issue we will not know the real strength of his commitment to a future in a family.

Peter Scott.

From my point of view there is not a great deal of positive development in Colin's over all situation, though he continues as far as I can tell, to maintain steady personal growth using facilities offered, and continuing to both seek and use appropriate and relevant supports.

He stopped attending the Kilcreggan Group on his own wishes, and I felt that that was a sign of growth that he could make up his own mind and act upon it.

He seems to have made the transfer to secondary school remarkably well, and I have not been aware of any serious problems.

I have been in touch with his family on a number of occasions, both to seek their help in completing Form E and there have been one or two points that have emerged:-

1. We cannot appear to trace his father's whereabouts.
2. His mother is in the Aberdeen area,
3. The family have indicated some form of interest in facilitating Colin's future, but any attempts to set up a family meeting within the Children's Home have not come to anything.

I consider Colin should remain at the Children's Home, and the work of allowing him to continue with his own development be established. A volunteer has expressed willingness to be involved with Colin, and Colin seems to be responsive to this. It may also be appropriate for the next stages to be taken over by another Social Worker to pursue the matter of finding an alternative family for him.

JOHN HUGHES
Area Social Work Organiser

28 April 1982

Following on from last Case Review in Oct. 81e has gradually worked through his testing out of Adults, and is far more settled in and around the Home setting.

His Foster Parents moving into a smaller House obviously gave Colin the message of their future intentions. There was discussion about the tea party for Colin, and no arrangement made as Colin was on Holiday in St Andrews.

Bernadette Gelsenor a Student on Placement did a lot of good work with Colin has kept in contact by visits, Phone, and by letter.

Colin is a much happier child, and is much more natural and normal in behaviour, with a ready smile, twinkle in his eye, a mischievous boy rather a change from his previous appearance of being sullen. Dour. appears to have the strength to resist the acting out and destructive behaviour he previously had when involved with others in the Home setting. His powers of concentration have improved, and is more able to sit at Board games, cards, Jigsaws.

Colin started Scouts 26th Feb (Vauxhall) towards the end of Feb. going with one of his friends from School. At the Easter Holidays the Scouts had a camp at Bleish.

bolin was excited when told about the camp, but the following week stated he did not want to go. When gently questioned it was confirmed that it was because of his enuresis. It would be an embarrassment to him. Peter discussed it with the Scoutmaster who assured Peter that bolin had nothing to worry about, and there would be no problem at camp. When reassured on this bolin went to camp and greatly benefitted from it.

also during the Easter Holidays he had a week's campeny at St Andrews along with Staff and children. In the smaller group setting bolin just blossomed. Taking part in all the activities with enthusiasm. Health appears healthy and active has grown in stature, is still faddy about his food, and has occasional headaches.

Growth bolin relate much more to adults, makes friends easily with other children and has a good relationship with Catherine Henderson.

Sexual Development is quite normal, sexual organs though small appear normal.

School. bolin has no school problems and has made friends at school.

In order to maintain his growth and development we feel a move to the long term group would be beneficial
