Dear James

Request for access to records
Your client: David Thompson 08/06/1984

I refer to your request for access to Social Work records made on 05 May 2026.

I can now enclose a copy of the information found within records and in relation to your client's engagement with Social Work Services.

Please note redactions have been applied to maintain the rights and freedoms of others. This is in line with data protection legislation which prevents the sharing of personal information with third parties. Also, the ongoing duty of confidentiality Glasgow City Council has towards those who have engaged with their services.

The redactions have predominantly been applied to information considered to be that of family members. Also, the name of staff within the local authority below grade 9 and those not believed to be Health, Education or Social Work professionals as they would not expect their personal information to be released in this way.

I hope you find the information useful.

Your rights:

Should you have any concerns in relation to the handling of your request for personal information you can contact the Council's Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@glasgow.gov.uk.

We aim to directly resolve all concerns about how we handle personal information. However, you also have the right to contact the Information Commissioner's Office in relation to data protection matters.

PRIVATE

The Information Commissioner's Office can be contacted using the following details: Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Phone 0303 123 1113 (local rate). More information can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>

Yours sincerely
