Good afternoon Callum

I am emailing you today about the link you provided on the 4th of June to access our clients records.

When trying to access this link with our log in it states it is only available to internal users as seen in the attachment.

Please could this be looked into or please advise if there is a process to access these links that I am missing.

Thanks in advance and we look forward to hearing from you in due course,

Kind regards

Daniel Asprey
