Official

Good morning,

Your request has been forwarded to the HSCP Information Team. As part of this process, the team will undertake searches on our HSCP Case Management and Electronic Document Management Systems (CareFirst and Comino).

To assist us in locating any records that may be held, please provide, where possible, the following information:

1. Names and dates of birth for your clients parents and any siblings.
2. Your name at the time of any Social Work involvement, including any previous names you may have been known by.
3. The address or area in which you lived during any period of Social Work involvement.

Please note that other organisations may independently hold records relating to your client. You are entitled to approach any organisation you believe may hold information and submit a request directly to them. We look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,
