Writer asked Leighanne when she was crying was it at night when she settles and Leighanne replied, it was mostly on a Saturday morning. Mgt McKinnon was concerned about what Leighanne was relaying and informed that we might look into a befriender or councillor for her, as she is obviously feeling isolated. We will monitor the situation and Mgt is to phone to make a visit next week and we can give her a feedback on how she has been coping. Mgt also added she would try and get in touch with someone who has been in the same situation that Leighanne had been through to see if they could pass on information to help Leighanne cope. | |

| | Leighanne was fine this afternoon, although she shouted about the House in her dressing Gown because her clothes were being washed and she had nothing to wear. She played the Computer for a long period. For the evening she proceeded to play her Mary in the sitting room. Mary asked her to go to her room in her Bedroom, as she was interfering with the Children who were viewing T.V. Leighanne then became verbally abusive towards Mary. Leighanne then asked a staff member to ring her Mum. Mary said no, Leighanne again became verbally demanding and telling Mary what Mary should do. Mary spoke to Leighanne telling her that her attitude would not be accepted and that she was not in control of staff. Leighanne then shouted that she was staying at her Mums tonight. Mary told her that if her attitude changed, this request would be granted. Leighanne calmed and Mary allowed her to go for a while but that we must receive a Phone call to say that Leighanne was safely at her Mums. | |

| 21/2/00 | Leighanne had some supper & chatted, a bit cheeky to Gail (SNR) at one point and was spoken to about this. Once in bed and asleep, Leighanne slept fine throughout night. Neil Wyllie | |
| Tues 22/2/00 | (late) Mary McK / Liz D Leighanne in and around house at start of shift. Prepared herself for her overnight. She left in the company of Lisa. Leighanne was reminded of her doctors appt tomorrow morning. Unfortunately we overlooked telling/reminding Leighanne of her Tutorial tonight. Several attempts were to contact Leighanne. Liz went to Renfrew Library to meet up and explain Leighannes absence. June apparently had asked Leighanne last week, to give this week a miss due to holiday - Leighanne apparently said no she would prefer to continue with her extra lessons. Leighanne did not turn up. Phoned Longcroft and when she was reminded of her visit with June she stated she had forgotten. Then stated she infact had told June to give this week a miss. June was paid £72.00 = 4 x £18. Leighanne on overnight at grans. Liz Doran. | |
