

Re: Data Subject Access Request - Miss Georgina Logan

Good afternoon,

We write further to the above matter and to your previous correspondence requesting a “wet ink” signature.

The signed Letter of Authority was signed by our Client using our e-sign service. There are no specifications or requirements in which the SAR is to come over with wet ink.

The information provided allows you to see we have authority to act on behalf of our client, together with their ID and said form of authority.

The only requirement for a traditional wet-ink signature is for specific legal documents that demand a higher level of formality such as land transactions and wills.

A wet ink-signature for personal data is not required and as such, we look forward to your confirmation that you will now progress our SAR.

The Letter of Authority clearly stipulates the date and time the document was signed, in this instance, 19 February 2026 at 13:29 GMT and witness signed by our firm on 19 February 2026

May we take this opportunity to remind you that we are under no obligations to provide you with any audit trails and any request for specific disclosure would need to be made via legal action.

We have provided a perfectly legible SAR request, with our Clients identification together with a signed letter of authority and their ID, all of which being dated within the last 6 months. We are not obliged to provide anything further.

Again, there are no specifications for a wet ink signature and any further push back for our request will be taken as avoidance and legal action will be taken.

We trust the need for a civil claim for specific disclosure will not be needed, however, should we proceed to such a stage, we will be seeking the costs of and occasioned to the same from South Ayrshire Council direct.

Please confirm before 5pm on 26 May 2026 that our SAR's sent on behalf of multiple clients will be processed with no further pushbacks. Should your position remain the same, please do provide me with your Data Protection Officer's details together with your senior managers details and your formal complaints process.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards
James
