

Reading

Presenting Centre: Kibble Education & Care Centre

Centre Number: 8680744

Name of Candidate: Jordan McCourt

Date of Birth: 16/10/1992

Poetry

☐

Critical Response

☒

Drama

☒

Imaginative Response

☒

Prose

☐

Media

☐

Name of Text & Author

Blood Brothers by Willy
Russel.

Details of Task Set:

Write about a play you have enjoyed that deals with important issues

Sources Consulted (if appropriate) _____

Critical Evaluation of drama

A play I have recently read is Blood Brothers. Willy Russell wrote the play. The story is about two twins that got separated from their parents. The two main characters are Mickey and Eddie they are Blood Brothers. The other important characters are the Mother and Mrs Lyons and the Narrator. The themes that are dealt with include friendship family superstition and irony.

The play starts when Mickey and Eddie are born. Mrs Johnston gives Eddie away to Mrs Lyons because she can't afford to keep him. The twins meet up again seven years ago. And then they become best friends the Mother tries to split them up but when they are twelve they meet up again. And they become friends with Linda. Eddie goes to university. Mickey and Linda get married and Linda gets pregnant. And then Eddie tells Linda that he loves her. And then Eddie takes Linda to a restraint and then Mickey finds out then he tries to kill him with a fake gun. By the end Mrs Lyons gets ill and kills them both.

The two main characters are Mickey and Eddie. The other important characters are Mrs Johnston and Mrs Lyons. And Linda also becomes important of the story. My favourite character is Mickey because he is funny and he is going out with Linda.

The themes that are addressed during the play are superstition friendship family and irony. The most interesting theme is irony: I think family is more important. I think the Johnston family gets on better because they are not crazy like the Lyons family.

My favourite part of the story is when Mickey sings about our Sammy. On page 31 he says: you know what he dose some times? He wees straight through the letterbox of the house next door to us: I enjoy this part of the story because it is hilarious and it is my favourite characters as well.

This essay is about Blood Brothers and the person who wrote it was Willy Russell. I enjoyed the play because it was terrific. I would recommend it to any body.

THE END

WRITTEN BY

Jordan McCourt