

decided that I would wait to see if she would 'phone again.

[redacted] 'phoned from Glasgow (yet once again) to say that there were no trains from Glasgow to Glengarnock & he had no money for a bus. He was told to report to the nearest Police Station & arrangements would be made to collect him.

S. Martin's father 'phoned to say that there were no trains running and could Steven return in the morning. His leave was extended.

A Jean Brown 'phoned from the short-stay Refuge Centre to say that [redacted] had arrived at Queen St., but his bus was late and he missed the connecting Express, so he returned to Riddrie. I asked her to tell him to return first thing tomorrow morning.

[redacted] managed to get to Glengarnock and was collected from the station. B.R. had laid on coaches, because there were no trains running.

Mrs Kennedy commenced as temp. summer relief. Boys gradually returning from leave, but many later than time stipulated. All boys told at lunch time that late returns from leave would be penalised, possibly by going out later on next leave. All SW's had meeting with Mr Walker, 2pm - 3.45pm. [redacted] and [redacted] returned from leave under suspicious circumstances - glue sniffing and possible thefts. Police will follow up on Tuesday. Many boys seem to be "blowing" prospects of summer leave, with only one week to go before hols. commence. Many more boys than normal to circulate as FTR from week-end leave: S. Martin, [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and E. Gray. [redacted] extended till Tues. [redacted]
