Dear James Lowe,

Our Reference: 100224

Our Client: Mr Brian Whyte

Thank you for your email.

I wrote to you on 11 May 2026 requesting clarification.

We were unable to locate any records for your client Brian Whyte.

To assist in our search further if you could provide more information for your client. We asked if your client is known by any additional names, siblings and previous addresses that your client remembers living at prior to being received into care.

If he is not an Edinburgh client, we will be able to signpost to the correct authority.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kind Regards

Ann

Dear Sir/Madam

Our Reference: 100224

Our Client: Mr Brian Whyte

We are writing to you in relation to the aforementioned client and reference.

We submitted a Data Subject Access Request on 23rd of April 2026, together with a Letter of Authority and the relevant defined period has now expired. Despite this expiry, we have not received any formal request for an extension of time.

As a gesture of goodwill, and in an attempt to negate the need for a formal complaint being issued to the Information Commissioner's Office, we would grant a further 14 days from the date of this correspondence for documents to be provided.

For ease, we would be grateful if you can provide all requested information electronically to evidence@mmalegal.co.uk

Should we not receive the requested information or communication from you we will be issuing a complaint to the ICO without further notice.

We trust this will not be necessary and look forward to receiving the requested information without further delay.

Yours Faithfully

James Lowe
