Good morning,

Thank you for your previous email. We note its contents.

As stated within our Subject Access Request we submitted is for a 'disclosure of all personal data held in relation to our client', across all systems and formats, including and not limited to:

- Admission and discharge records
- Full placement history, including transfers between care settings
- Social work records, case files, and assessments
- Daily logs, key worker notes, and case notes Incident reports, safeguarding records, and protection referrals
- Case conference notes, reviews, and internal assessments
- Complaints, investigations, and outcomes
- Correspondence between staff, local authorities, and external agencies
- Records shared with or held by third-party care providers acting on your behalf
- Medical, psychological, or educational records held within the care file
- Photographs or other documentation relating to our client's time in care
- Records identifying staff members and roles involved in their care

We can confirm that our intention of the request is to determine a complete and accurate record of our client's time in care. However, our request isn't limited to only records in relation to our client's time in care. We requested all personal data in relation to our client, including and not limited to their time in care.

We hope that this will clear up the confusion in regard to our request. If you require any further information, don't hesitate to contact us further.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

James
