Hi Claire, Your energy prices are changing.

From 1 April, Ofgem's price cap is going down. So if you get both gas and electricity from us, you'll see a decrease of around £117* in your yearly energy costs. You'll find the exact cost impact over the page (based on the energy you use), along with your old and new prices.

Your energy bill will be discounted from 1 April following action taken by the UK Government in the 2025 Budget. You can find more info at gov.uk/your-energy-bill.

Your prepayment card or key will update to your new prices automatically when you top up on or after 1 April (it can take up to 3 top ups to update).

It's really important that you use an E.ON Next card or key - if you use another one your prices won't update and you could end up owing us money. Need help? Head to eonnex.com/prepayment-help.

Check your online account at eonnex.com/login to see how we can help you get more out of your energy. If you haven't set one up yet, you can do it in a few clicks at eonnex.com/register.

We're still looking out for you.

We've always got your back - take a look at the help box on the right, and if you're struggling, please get in touch.

Any way we can help, we will.

*£117 annual decrease is based on a dual fuel customer using 2,700 kWh electricity and 11,500 kWh gas a year, paying by Direct Debit.
